Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US

Burning Man Project's (BMP) established operating procedure requires that work in foreign countries be done only by and through persons directly known to it or to one of its projects such as Burners Without Borders (BWB). Generally those persons serve as the directors of organizations through which the work is done, and such organizations must have a proven track record of community access and success, and represent and warrant to BMP that the funds will be used only for the purpose for which they are intended. In 2013 all international activities were done by BWB.

BWB monitors the recipients by requiring regular reports, checking with program recipients directly, and in many cases sending BWB volunteers to the country to perform volunteer services themselves, and then report back to BWB. For example, BWB sent artists to Haiti to do artist-in-residence programs to teach youth in Jakmel how to print using silk screen techniques. BWB's volunteers were on the first plane in after a devastating typhoon in the Philippines. BWB is careful that all international activities comply with all applicable statutes and regulations. As appropriate, BMP and BWB at any stage of the process may solicit input from BMP's legal, finance, or other departments to help ensure compliance in these international activities. Also as appropriate, BMP and BWB may at any stage solicit reports from BWB volunteers or collaborators on-site in the country. If required regular reporting of any funds spent, with supporting documentation, and works through reputable local non-government organizations as a fiscal sponsor.

Acquisition on December 31, 2013, of Subsidiary Organization Black Rock City, LLC ("BRC").

By unanimous vote of the disinterested directors of the Board of Burning Man Project ("BMP") on December 27, 2013, BMP acquired 100% of the ownership shares of BRC from its six owners (the "LLC Members"), each of whom owned an equal one-sixth interest in BRC. It was a share purchase, not an asset purchase.

BRC produces the Burning Man event in Nevada. The acquisition included all of the assets and liabilities of BRC as of December 31, 2013 ("Closing Date"), including the right to produce and operate the Burning Man event, the right to receive all of its future income, substantial cash reserves, its global network of contacts and relationships, and ownership of BRC's wholly owned subsidiary BRC Holdings, LLC, which owns Nevada real estate related to production of the Burning Man event. That real estate was appraised by a different independent real estate appraiser in a Rule 170 qualified appraisal.

Purchase Price and In-Kind Contribution of Share Value

The fair market value of each one-sixth ownership interest in BRC was valued as of September 30, 2013, in an independent Rule 170 qualified business appraisal at $809,000 (Eight Hundred and Nine Thousand dollars), representing a total valuation of 100% of BRC at $4,854,000 (Four Million Eight Hundred Fifty Four Thousand Dollars), after applying discounts for fractional interests (lack of control and marketability).

BMP agreed to pay a deeply discounted total price of $46,000 (Forty Six Thousand Dollars) for each of the six LLC Members' one-sixth share of BRC. The total Purchase Price BMP agreed to pay for BRC was $276,000.00 (Two Hundred and Seventy-Six Thousand Dollars).

Each LLC Member donated the remaining fair market value of their shares to the Burning Man Project nonprofit on December 31, 2013. Each Seller's individual deduction (not contribution) was at the discounted valuation or below.

A second independent Rule 170 qualified business valuation was done after the Closing for January 1, 2014, when BMP owned 100% of the shares of BRC. At that moment, there was no applicable discount, and BRC was valued at $7,390,000 (Seven Million Three Hundred Ninety Thousand dollars) (less than 1% different than the September valuation).

Under GAAP, BMP must recognize on this return the contributions of shares at the fair market value on the date the contributions were received. FASB 958-605-30. Thus, each LLC Member's in-kind donation of shares is valued on this return at $1,242,667 less the $46,000 each is owed for their shares under the discounted Purchase Price, leaving a net contribution shown on the return of $1,185,667. These in-kind contributions are listed on Schedule B of this Form 990 by name from each the six LLC Members:

Harley K. Dubois
Marian Goodell
Larry Harvey
Michael Mikel
Nanci O. Peterson
Will Roger Peterson

BRC is now a wholly owned subsidiary of Burning Man Project.

Additional material terms:

BMP's purchase of BRC included a separate exclusive license to use and sub-license the Burning Man trademarks for an annual licensing fee of $75,000 (Seventy-five thousand dollars) to be paid by BMP to the trademarks' owner, Decommodification, LLC.

If BMP defaults on payment of any of the Purchase Price, the Sellers may not foreclose upon the sale of BRC to BMP, its assets after the Closing Date then being irrevocably dedicated to nonprofit purposes. Their only recourse in the event of default shall be to monetary damages. Their contributions to BMP of the value of their shares was irrevocable.

BMP agreed to employ five of the Sellers after the close starting in 2014, for services to be rendered to BMP at compensation that the board determined, in accord with its Board Approval of Compensation policy, was reasonable based upon two different surveys of compensation for similar positions in similarly situated Northern California arts nonprofits. One seller remained employed by BRC, also at compensation for services rendered determined using the same method. As part of the transaction, BRC amended its governance documents, including its Articles of Organization, to irrevocably dedicate its assets to nonprofit purposes and to become a wholly owned subsidiary of BMP.

The stock purchase and related transactions were approved by the BMP Board of Directors unanimously, excluding the Sellers, whom were recused from voting under BMP's written Conflict of Interest policy. The transactions were discussed extensively, upon extensive due diligence, and the BMP board was represented in the transaction by a Transition Committee comprised of three disinterested directors. The BMP board met several times without the sellers present, and with independent counsel who did not represent any of the Sellers or BRC. The transactions were made with the advice and upon the counsel of two qualified nonprofit lawyers from different firms, and were heavily negotiated and changed pursuant to such negotiations. The BMP board also received an opinion letter from counsel and its tax advisors.
