

from your burning man archive
and documentation team The Burning Man

Archive and Documentation Team is organizing an archive of the gifts, theme camp affiliation items, and images that participants have designed and/or made to share with others or your campmates (it's material culture don' cha know). Please bring this form with two samples of your stickers, necklaces, cards...whatever you have to The Artery, located in Center Camp.

Because this material is sometimes used for art exhibitions, please fill out this form for our information. It's part of the cultural history of Burning Man, and we need contributions for our archive.
